New Business:

- Snack shack status from football games 2-4
Snack shack doing well, very busy. Good turn out of volunteers.
Brought in approximately - game2, $2,363, game3, $1,714, game4 $1,438.00.
* Homecoming game is Oct. 29 vs. Prospect.
- Snack shack for Leigh/Piedmont Hills Game at Del Mar on 10/15/2010.
Shack ran smoothly with Leigh providing at least 10 of their own volunteers to help work the shack. Liz, Diane, Mickey, Connie, and Greg helped out as back up. We purchased goods, we get back + profit. Next game is November 12 Leigh/Oak Grove.
- Snack shack status lending to Performing Arts/Band – Went well, some coordination problems since first time. Donated left over supplies to Don's ($200+). Don's to continue to let Band use shack once a year for this occasion. Mickey Angerman will see to better coordination in the future.
- Sell Del Mar decals in shack for $5.00. One free decal per membership.
- Basketball snack shack – Cathie Roeder has assigned duties to volunteers for the basketball shack (open/close/supplies, etc). Martha Contreras has emailed sign up schedule and is collecting volunteers to work the shack during the games.
- Pursue Bathrooms for the bowl again? – Yes, worth another try. Mickey to talk with Liz Seabury about the districts views. Some plumbing and electrical are there.

Old Business:

- Fundraising Ideas - Golf, Bowling, Bingo – We need committees/new parents to help organize.
- Casino night/Crab feed – Bob De La Cruz provided a lot of good information on possible venues and prices for these events. Don's Club needs to decide if it is worth doing.
- Other fundraising ideas brought up: Flea market in parking lot of Del Mar once a month. Good idea to try to see if successful with Del Mar's demographics.
